

'I Haven't Checked But 87 Years Ago

By A. ROBERT SMITH
Register-Guard Correspondent

WASHINGTON—One thing members of the press appreciate about President Eisenhower is that in his statements at his news conferences he seldom reverts to the old dodge, "no comment."

Quite the opposite, the president sometimes gets into a bit of a tangle. Often he is extremely