

'I Haven't Checked This, But 87 Years Ago...'

By A. ROBERT SMITH
Register-Guard Correspondent

WASHINGTON—One thing members of the press corps here appreciate about President Eisenhower is that in answering questions at his news conferences he seldom reverts to that familiar dodge, "no comment."

Quite the opposite, the president sometimes gets wound up and Often he is extremely lucid and in-